Kwon's Code of Conduct

I have gone over with my child, and both my child and I have agreed to the following:

-Always listen to and show respect for all staff members at Kwon's. It is very important that all instructions are followed, especially on field trips. Never wander off alone, stay in your group.

-Always follow the "Golden Rule" at Fun Camp. No physical or verbal abuse, and no teasing or unkind behavior will be tolerated.

-In the Kwon's Vans, always put your seatbelt on, and NEVER remove it until the van has arrived at its destination and you have been instructed to exit the van. Never eat or drink in the vans, unless instructed to do so. Always remove any trash you may have on the van.

-Any electronic devices that are brought to Kwon's are done so at your own risk. Neither Kwon's Taekwondo nor the staff members will be held responsible, in any way, for the loss, breakage, or theft of any device. Furthermore, there will be no violent or inappropriate games, images, or songs. YouTube is prohibited.

-Show respect to all property, whether it's Kwon's, a fellow camper's or the property belonging to a place we visit.

-Students must wear their camp t-shirts for every field trip.

-Students will participate in Taekwondo class whenever there is class.

-On the first day of camp each camper will be reminded of the conduct rules. Any camper that breaks a conduct rule will receive a verbal warning. A second offense will result in the camper sitting out of the activity or play group. If a camper becomes unruly or a Camp Administrator feels the parent needs to be involved, they will be contacted right away. As an absolute last resort, if the behavior cannot be controlled, or the camper is a danger to other campers, the camper may be sent home with no refund of camp fees.
